
Erasmus+ PHD short term mobilities - Exceptional call

Department for International Relations PedF is announcing a call for applications for Short-term PhD mobilities.

- Programme summary:
 - 5 SLOTS AVAILABLE
 - 5-30 days abroad
 - ONLY FOR MOBILITIES BETWEEN APRIL 1ST 2026 AND SEPTEMBER 30TH 2026
 - 1-14 days - 79Eur/day
 - 15-30 days - 56Eur/day
 - Earliest term of stay abroad: July 2025
 - Student can pick any institution in the European union
 - Institution must have Registration number /VAT number
 - Institutions of European Union are exempt of this call
 - Student contacts their preferred institution and asks for acceptance letter
 - For the purpose of this call email confirmation is enough but official invitation on headed paper will be necessary
 - In case of Universities we strongly advise to ask their International relations office whether they will be able to accept the student even without bilateral agreement and if there is any specific steps needed for being accepted.
 - Students who have not been abroad during their PhD studies are taking a priority in this tender.

To be admitted into the tender the student must:

Deliver the following documents to the Department for International Relations (Spálená 14, 1st floor, bell OZV) or via email (petra.zakoutska@pedf.cuni.cz) until 28th February.

- Erasmus Programme Application
- Structured CV in Czech or English
- motivation letter in Czech or English
- thesis supervisor's recommendation
- acceptance letter or invitation letter of chosen institution

Any applications recieved after 28th February will be exempt from the tender.

Contact person: Petra Zákoutská (petra.zakoutska@pedf.cuni.cz)