

The graduate of this programme is a professional prepared for the performance of managerial functions at lower, middle and top management levels in schools and educational institutions in state and public administration.