

Graduates gain a solid and fundamental education in Czech studies-both in linguistics and literature-Bohemistics.They would find a wide range of possibilities to work in different government humanitarian and cultural institutions that all required verbal competences and communicative skills in a direct contact with public,in press departments or different kinds of medias.