

Acquired knowledge and skills – general, professional and specialized:

A graduate of this study branch acquires extensive general education in the field of social sciences. The graduate has general theoretical knowledge and the ability to apply it in practice. The graduate is able to analyze and resolve social issues from a multidisciplinary perspective and operate with differentiated paradigms provided by individual social sciences.

Introduction to Social Sciences with Focus on Education bachelor study branch is primarily meant to prepare students for following masters pedagogy study branch in Introduction to Social Sciences. The aim is to ensure extensive general education in the field of social sciences and nurture the ability to apply theoretical knowledge in practice.