

The graduate of the bachelor branch Musical Instrument oriented at Education is competent for lector, assistant, free time pedagogue or tutor at the leisure activities of children, youth and adults in the sphere of music education.

The study branch has two specializations – the piano playing and the string instruments playing. The study program is oriented at first at progress of communication and organization abilities and motivates students for cooperation. At second it enables individual professional growing as well as individual character. Everything is founded on music theory, music history studies and motivate methodic and pedagogical subjects. The project of this study program is defined for persons who have already achieved high level in branch of perform instrument interpretation and who want to use their relationship to music in professional future.