

Graduate is prepared for professional management of all types of choirs (children, female, male, mixed). It can be applied in a musical educational institutions in government and private sector, as an assistant in facilities for recreational activities, in the churches, in the fields of culture and education. Graduate does not qualify as a teacher.

The aim of the study branch choir conducting in Education is to equip the student system of basic theoretical knowledge and practical skills in conducting professional disciplines, especially in switching technology, analysis of choral scores in terms of its interpretive rendition and instrumental activities. Priorities field lie further develop analytical abilities musical ear, voice training, training in prompt reading and interpretation of the piano choral scores. The intent of the study is theoretical preparation for future choirmaster, which should continue in the master study field of general subjects for elementary, secondary, and Music School - Choir. Content and objectives study provides musical education with the absence of music teaching disciplines, which are a prerequisite for self-choirmaster activity.