

The graduate will have acquired theoretical and practical competence to perform his/her teaching profession in nursery schools and pre-school education institutions in accordance with European standards regarding pre-school education.