

Graduate acquires knowledge and skills in a wide range of pedagogical and psychological sciences, which are applied to education outside the classroom. Graduate can work as an educator and lecturer of free time in schools and school facilities, especially in after-school clubs, school clubs and leisure centers. Furthermore graduate can also work outside school system especially in educational work with children and adults, as an animator.