

Graduates are qualified as teachers of Czech language and literature at primary schools and secondary schools. They are also eligible for linguistic and literary-bohemistic work at scientific bohemistics institutions and at positions, where solid knowledge of Czech language and literature is presupposed (proof reader, editor, journalist etc.).