

The graduate of the master studium is full qualified in the professional, didactic and pedagogic sphere as well as in the sphere of organisation, administration, general education and professional or personal culture. He acquires qualification for music education at basic music schools, basic and high schools.

The aim of the study branch Training Teachers of General Subjects at Lower and Higher Secondary Schools – Music Instrument is to equip the student for his future job – instrumental teaching at basic music schools, basic and high schools. The prerequisite for the study is graduation bachelor branch Music Instrument Oriented at Education or a bachelor branch of music academy. Students improve their music and instrumental skills tending to pedagogic a didactic. Contents and goals of this study provide complete music education which is necessary for self artistic pedagogical activities.