

The graduate will have acquired professional competence qualifying him/her to teach at primary schools and to continue in further professional study including PhD. study. Moreover, the graduate shall have acquired profound knowledge and skills in one specialisation (such as a foreign language, Music, Art, Drama or Physical Education).