

---

Miroslav Vlček Extraordinary Scholarship

---

Charles University awards the Miroslav Vlček Extraordinary Scholarship to recognize international students who go above and beyond their academic duties. This honor celebrates those who:

- Promote the good name of the university in the Czech Republic or abroad,
- Participate in research or educational projects,
- Support other international students through community-building activities.

Who can be nominated?

Students enrolled in any foreign-language study program at Charles University.

Scholarship amount:

CZK 30,000 (one-time award).

Nomination process:

Submit your nomination via the electronic form provided by CU Point between July 1 and September 30. Nominations should include the student's name, UKČO, and a brief justification.

Selection and award:

The Rector will select one student (or team) based on recommendations from faculties. The award is presented during the Study in Prague consortium ceremony in November.

For full details, visit Charles University's official page.